

FREE SOFTWARE - RESELLER / WHITE LABEL LICENCE

Maian Script World

Overview

A free software reseller licence enables you to take the software, remove all credits to Maian Script World and the software name and sell the software as your own. The cost of the reseller licence is cheap, and it's cheaper than hiring a programmer to build something from scratch. If you are good at marketing and can sell the software you'll soon recuperate the costs and be on your way to making lots of money.

What IS allowed?

- [YES] Remove all references to Maian Script World and/or David Ian Bennett
- [YES] Sell the system as your own at any price on any website. eg: Ebay
- [YES] Make modifications to suit your own requirements
- [YES] Integrate the software with any 3rd party software
- [YES] Rebrand the software

What is NOT allowed?

- [NO] Make any reference to Maian Script World or David Ian Bennett as a partner
- [NO] Sell the system with any reference to the software title
- [NO] Offer the system for free as a direct competitor for the software you have purchased the reseller licence for
- [NO] Make a copy of the software website for your own marketing purposes
- [NO] Use any software material for your own marketing purposes

Do I get any support?

No, not with free software.

When I purchase the white label license, do I purchase the software outright?

Of course not. The software always remains the property of David Ian Bennett & Maian Script World. The software is copyright protected in the United Kingdom.
